Ways to talk in GD

- Start the GD/Conclude the GD
- What to do if you haven't started the GD?
- Unknown topic - Agree/Against
- Known topic - Talk about it.

Starting the GD:

1. "To begin with, I'd like to introduce the topic and share my thoughts on it..."
2. "Let me start by highlighting the key aspects of this topic..."
3. "I believe the most important point to consider here is..."
4. "Let's start by analyzing the situation from this perspective..."

Concluding the GD

1. "To summarize our discussion, it's clear that..."
2. "In conclusion, we've agreed that..."
3. "To wrap up, the key points we've discussed are..."
4. "As we come to the end of our discussion, it's evident that..."

Agreeing to a point

- "I completely agree with what [name] mentioned about..."
- "That's a valid point, and I think it's important to emphasize that..."
- "I concur with [name] on this, and I'd like to add..."
- "You're absolutely right, and I'd like to build on that by saying..."

Disagreeing to a point

- "I understand your point, but I see it differently because..."
- "While I respect your opinion, I have a different perspective on..."
- "I see where you're coming from, but I think we should also consider..."
- "That's an interesting point, but I would argue that..."

Debate like GD

Present Strong Arguments

- Logical Reasoning: Use clear, logical arguments to support your position. For example, "I believe [Viewpoint A] is stronger because [reason], supported by [evidence]."
- Counterarguments: Address potential counterarguments proactively. For example, "Some might argue [Viewpoint B], but that doesn't account for [flaw in the argument]."

Stay Respectful:

- Disagree Tactfully: "I respectfully disagree because..."
- Avoid Personal Attacks: Focus on the arguments, not the individuals. For example, "While I understand your perspective, I think the issue at hand is more about [specific argument]."
